Industry

The MCEX lists DROs in four industries: Food & Beverage, Retail, Services, and Culture & Sports. Below are their breakdowns, by the cumulative issued DROs.

Index (Car Charging)

Since mid-January 2024, the demand for electric vehicle charging has shown a steady increase, peaking towards the end of February and early March. This uptick indicates a rising consumer interest in EV charging services and the industry's continued investment in infrastructure.

In March, there were notable spikes in demand (on March 3rd and March 17th), likely tied to government incentives for new energy vehicles and favourable policy rollouts. As fuel prices rise, the cost benefits of electric vehicles are becoming more evident.
